

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

ANTONIO DARNELL MAYS,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 20-cv-0105-bhl

WESLEY BEBO, et al.,

Defendants.

---

NOTICE AND ORDER

---

Plaintiff Antonio Mays, who is representing himself, filed a complaint under 42 U.S.C. §1983. On February 17, 2021, the defendants filed a motion for summary judgment on the ground that Mays failed to exhaust the available administrative remedies before he filed his lawsuit. Dkt. No. 20. Under Civil L. R. 56(b)(2), Mays' response materials are due within thirty days of service of the motion, or by Friday, March 19, 2021. In responding to the motion, Mays must respond to each of the proposed findings of fact by agreeing with each proposed fact or explaining why he disagrees with a particular proposed fact. If he does not indicate one way or the other, the Court will assume that he agrees with the proposed fact. Mays must support every disagreement with a proposed fact by citing to evidence. He can do that by relying on documents that he attaches to his response or by telling the Court his version of what happened in an affidavit or an unsworn declaration under 28 U.S.C. §1746.<sup>1</sup> An unsworn declaration is a way for a party to tell his side of the story while declaring to the Court that everything in the declaration is true and correct. Williams must also respond to the legal arguments in the brief.

---

The Court reminds Mays that, under Civil L. R. 7(d), a party's failure to respond to a motion is sufficient cause for the Court to grant the motion. If Mays believes he needs additional time to prepare his response materials, he must file a motion asking the Court to extend the deadline before his response materials are due. If he files such a motion, he must explain why he needs additional time and how much additional time he needs.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, if by March 19, 2021, Mays does not respond to the summary judgment motion or does not request additional time to do so, the Court will grant the motion.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 18th day of February, 2021.
